The traditional distillery of Lantenschammer, Schliersee, founded 1928, is in hands of the third generation, today headed by the master of distillation, Florian Stetter. The selected fruits for the premium brandys are raised from controlled farming and wild growing, untreated plants, used without preserves or aromatic additives. The brandys are stored in stoneware for up to 3 years after distillation granting the soft taste, they are loved for.

Birgitta Rust Obstcuvee Überseebrand	40%	4,90 €
--------------------------------------	-----	--------

Birgitta Rust established her distillery as a newcomer this industry on 11.11.2011 in the heart of the „Hansestadt Bremen“, six of her so-called „Piekfeinen Brände“ have been awarded with prizes and medals only 6 months after the opening. The „Überseebrand“ is a combination of fruity taste of pears and the meaty taste of apples with a touch of of cinnamon and cloves.
